

United States Embassy Nairobi
Public Affairs Section
American Reference Center

United Nations Avenue
P. O. Box 606, Village Market
00621 Nairobi, Kenya
Tel: 254-20-3636196/7
Fax: 254-20-3636501

Educational Curriculum Book Donation to Bright-Ways Girls Secondary School in Machakos

CAO Raymond Stephens donated books and other educational materials to Brightways Girls secondary school. The center was established in 2000 as a girl's boarding school. The school has 121 students, and 10 teachers. Its private school but receives support from the local community, and currently fifteen (15) are sponsored by the school. He also held an enlightening discussion with the students on importance of studying, Education in the US, youth in America, school life, scholarships, use of information technology to mention some.

The mixed set of books and journals will benefit students and teachers at the school

1. Educational Charts - Biology, Chemistry, Physics
2. US Economy, American Geography, Outline of US Economy,
3. E-Journal See you in America,
4. Barrack Obama the 44th President of the US
5. English Teaching Forum
6. Muslim Life in America

Importance

Access to books is an important step in achieving our mission goal of helping students acquires knowledge, master creative and intellectual skills that will help them in future. It also gave the high school an excellent collection of materials furthering our relationship the institution. The activity held mission objective of promoting global education through reading.

Brightways Girls Secondary School Students looking at Educational charts donated by Public Affairs, U.S. Embassy

<http://nairobi.usembassy.gov/>